

Endless love, what does it mean?
That grace abounds, to a wretch like me?
To fully know, and be fully known
God of love, boundless mercy shown

No greater love, has anyone seen
God gave His Son, to ransom the unclean
He took me from, my miry clay
Called me His son, keeps me each day

To comprehend, the vast and grand
Love of God, with open hand
There doesn't seem, to be a way
To know in full, His love displayed

Jesus Christ, God's precious Son
Our one true light, life's victory won
Fill me again, with a love so pure
That by all, You'll be seen for sure
